Application Process
The scholarship will be awarded through a two-step process. The Architecture Program Scholarship Committee will nominate three candidates for the Scholarship to Design Collective. Design Collective will make a final determination on the award.

All applications are due by 5:00 PM Friday, February 26, 2016
The finalists will be announced on Friday, March 11, 2016
The Jack Smith Kerxton Scholarship Fund was established in March 1994 by Barbara Kerxton, the Fund Committee (various relatives, friends and business associates of Jack Smith Kerxton), and Torti Gallas and Partners. The fund provides scholarships to students enrolled in the School of Architecture. Graduate students who have completed the ARCH 600/611 course sequence are eligible.

The criteria for making an award shall be 1) good academic standing, 2) leadership and responsible citizenship qualities, 3) any other criteria which may include financial need, as determined by the Awards Committee. The Awards Committee also endeavors to make an award to a student who may be available to accept a paid internship with Torti Gallas over the summer. Availability of the student to participate in the internship may be a factor in making the award. However, the internship shall not be an absolute requirement for making an award, especially in those instances where awards are made to more than one student during any school year.

The Architecture Program Scholarship Committee will make a preliminary determination and advance at least three nominees to the Kerxton Awards Committee. The Kerxton Awards Committee will consist of three members, consisting of one representative each, from the Kerxton family, Torti Gallas and Partners, and the School of Architecture. The Kerxton Awards Committee will interview each of the nominees prior to making a selection.

The approximate value of the Jack Smith Kerxton Scholarship is $5,500.00
